

KULTURA KAKOVOSTI IN PREPOZNAVANOST SLOVENSkih UNIVERZ QUALITY CULTURE AND RECOGNITION OF SLOVENE UNIVERSITIES

---

Roger King

- * Visiting Professor, School of Management, University of Bath (2010- )
- * Adjunct Professor, Teaching and Education Development Institute, University of Queensland, Australia (2010- )
- * Research Associate, Centre for the Analysis of Risk and Regulation, London School of Economics and Political Science (2005- )

Roger King also has recently concluded a six-year period as Visiting Professor at the Centre for Higher Education Research and Information at the Open University. Previously during the 2000s he has been a Visiting Professor at the following Australian universities: Griffith, QUT, and Sunshine Coast. He has also been Visiting Research Fellow at the Association of Commonwealth Universities (2003-5).

He was Vice Chancellor of the University of Lincoln (UK) from 1989-2001 and the founding Chair of the Institute for Learning and Teaching in Higher Education (now the Higher Education Academy) from 1998-2001. He has been a member of the Board of the Observatory of Borderless Higher Education since its founding in 2001. He has undertaken various consultancy and Board positions in recent years. He is also the Series Co-Editor (with Noel Entwistle) of Palgrave Macmillan's Universities into the Twenty First Century, which has produced a dozen or so well-received titles since 2002.

Among recent book publications include: The State, Democracy and Globalization (2003); The University in the Global Age (2004); The Regulatory State in an Age of Governance (2007); Governing Universities Globally (2009); and a Handbook on Globalization and Higher Education (with Simon Marginson and Rajani Naidoo, 2011). In addition he has written a number of published journal and other articles.

Currently he is researching Marketization and Risk-Based Regulation in Higher Education.